WOMAN SPURNS HEGGIE'S MONEY

Miss Hays Expresses Gratitude for Vindication and Tribute Verdict Pays Womanhood.

"Although I am, of course, broken in heart and spirit on account of the severe and trying ordeal I went through on Wednesday, yet I am deeply conscious and profoundly grateful to the twelve men on the jury, who, by their verdict, have written upon the horizon of life a monument to the womanhood of the country. It is not only a verdict in my favor, but in favor of every woman who is left defenseless in this world. I want none of Mr. Heggie's money, not one penny, and I have told my attorneys that for their appeal in my behalf they may divide the entire amount the court of last resort gives me.

"At some time in the very near future I shall see every one of the members of the jury and express to them, from the bottom of my heart, my appreciation of my vindication at their hands. It was severely trying to go before a court and open my life-book, when one of the pages had been so blotted by a man who had, under the guise of love, robbed me of the richest jewel any woman ever possessed. However, if my efforts will be the means of saving even one other girl, then it is worth all that I have given."

This statement was made Friday morning by Miss Elizabeth Hays, speaking through her counsel, J. H. Daly.

Verdict Unanimous.

Miss Hays was, on Thursday, given a $16,000 verdict against George Heggie, whom she sued for breach of promise and seduction. The case was heard in the circuit court Wednesday before Judge Nathan L. Bachman and the jury returned a verdict Thursday morning in less than half an hour after they had been charged. The suit charged two offenses, breach of promise and seduction, and the jury gave Miss Hays a verdict of $16,000 on the breach of promise case and $11,000 on the seduction count. It was learned Friday that on the very first ballot the jury stood unanimous for a heavy verdict in favor of Miss Hays, and the majority were in favor of rendering a verdict of $20,000. However, after it was remembered that Mr. Heggie stated on the stand that he was worth $12,000, a verdict was then reached, giving Miss Hays half his wealth.

Much Interest.

The case has attracted wide-spread attention since it was filed last year. At the trial, Miss Hays took the stand and told of every incident that transpired between her and Heggie since they met. She claimed that Heggie had made love to her and under that pretense, she had, by force, yielded to his wishes. She stated that from time to time he renewed his intentions to marry her and she believed him until he informed her that he was not a marrying man and never intended to marry any woman. She said that she then entered suit for damages. The trial of the case was replete with sensational evidence, the names of many prominent men being mentioned. Miss Hays said that Heggie had told her about a number of affairs with women and said that she was not the only one hurt by his promises. A verdict of the jury came as no surprise to those who attended the trial. A motion for a new trial was made by W. B. Miller, counsel for Mr. Heggie.

SEND TOBACCO TO BOYS IN TRENCHES

Earl W. Vickery, Central High Boy Now With "Rainbow Division," Writes Home.

Mrs. S. T. Vickery, of 1505 East Tenth street, has received a letter from her son, Edward W. Vickery, of Company F, 167th United States Infantry, of the American expeditionary force, located "somewhere in France."

Young Vickery is a member of the famous Rainbow division, and was among the first to enlist at the outbreak of the war. He was a student at Central High school before going into the service of Uncle Sam. The News publishes a few extracts from Mr. Vickery's letter:

"Dear Mother and Father—We are having some pretty nice weather here now, but we had snow on the ground for a month. It melted, however, the other day, and we now have what you might call spring weather.

"Believe me, these French people charge an American soldier for what he buys. You can hardly get cigarettes over here; so if you will I would like for you to send me some every month, or whenever you can. You said let you know what to send me. Just send me tobacco and candy. Anything from home folks makes a soldier feel better. Send me a paper from Chattanooga, as we cannot get any English papers here very well. That razor papa sent me sure is a good one. Tell all the family to write to me. From your son, 'EARL W. VICKERY.'"

GREEK VETERAN'S CASE PUZZLES DRAFT BOARD

Nicholas Sideris, a Greek, who is employed as a waiter at Civic Center, Chickamauga park, made a statement to officials of city board No. 2 Thursday that will bear investigation before his questionnaire can be filled out. The officials are perplexed whether or not Sideris is an alien and belongs in Class 5 or is an American citizen and belongs in Class 1.

Sideris states that he came to this country in 1910, sailing from Piraeus, and landed in New York. His first papers were taken out in 1912. He then went back to Greece and joined the Greek army in the Balkan war. He served two years in the army and received an honorable discharge. Sideris seems to think that he is not subject to military service in Greece any more, because he volunteered in the Balkan war for service in the field.

In conclusion, Sideris declared: "After the Balkan war I went to Constantinople, and in order to get away from there I used a friend's name who was a citizen of Turkey. This friend of mine was not subject to military service in Turkey; and under this name I managed to get Greece. I sailed from Piraeus on the Ioannina and landed in New York about December, 1914. I understood that my landing in Greece and enlistment in the Greek army re-established my citizenship in Greece."

Sideris has six bullet wounds which he received in an engagement with Egyptian troops, and was one of the two left alive out of a battalion of 600 to which was delegated the duty of charging a certain position. Young Sideris speaks four different languages, and from all appearances, seems to be highly educated. J. L. Foust, attorney, made out his questionnaire. Sideris registered in New York City.

AUTO CLUB WILL ASSIST COL. PAGE

Entertainment of Maj.-Gen. Gorgas Planned for March 11.

For the purpose of co-operating with Col. Page, commanding the medical officers' training camp, and the other civic bodies of the city in the entertainment of the distinguished visitors, including Maj.-Gen. Gorgas, who will come to Chattanooga to attend the dedication of the administration building at the camp, March 11, a committee composed of T. C. Thompson, chairman; J. R. Huff, W. R. Long, C. M. Preston and C. C. Nottingham was appointed at the meeting of the Chattanooga Automobile club at the Hotel Patten Thursday night. Chairman Thompson was requested to call on the various other civic organizations and have a joint committee meeting held at once, when all the plans necessary for the city's co-operation might be worked out without delay.

The club went on record as unanimously favoring the holding of good fellowship dinners similar to the one held last Monday night at least once a month under the auspices of the club. Plans were made to finance the dinners without calling on the club's treasury. The standing entertainment committee, composed of John E. Lovell, chairman; W. B. Bender, Fred H. Cantrell, J. R. Huff and C. C. Nottingham, was given special charge of the invitations and entertainment for the dinners.

Welfare Work.

D. W. Thomas brought to the attention of the club a request for special assistance in behalf of the welfare of the camp made by Gen. Erwin. A committee, composed of D. W. Thomas, chairman; W. C. Thatcher and D. A. Graves, was appointed to make the necessary investigation and give the assistance required.

J. H. Buchholz requested that the proper committee investigate complaints which have been made of car owners parking their cars on Market street too close to the safety zones. He pointed out the danger of this in the event of a fire. He also questioned the wisdom of the present rule of requiring cars to be parked head in to the curb. The suggestion made by Mr. Buchholz was referred to the street committee, composed of W. R. Long, chairman; Clarence T. Jones, D. W. Thomas, C. M. Preston and N. H. Grady.

Standing Committees.

President Rogers announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Finance—A. H. Rogers, chairman; C. E. Kirkpatrick, Mark K. Wilson, W. R. Long and John E. Lovell.

SCOUTS AND Y. M. C. A. BOYS TO HIKE SATURDAY

A hike to Lula falls is Saturday's program for local Boy Scouts and Y. M. C. A. boys.

The director of boys' work, Roy D. Bachman, will be in charge of the outing, and requests that the youngsters meet at the junior department of the "Y" at 8:30 Saturday morning, armed with lunch and a dime for car fare.

Mr. Bachman expects to reorganize practically all Boy Scout troops in the city, and in about two weeks hopes to start a six-weeks training camp for scoutmasters.

Troop No. 1 of the First Baptist church will be reorganized Monday night. A new troop will be formed at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday night, with Schrock and Carley as scoutmasters. Troop 6 will be divided. This is the Park Place organization of scouts.

The troops will be organized in North Chattanooga and East Lake. The East Lake boys will meet next Friday night. They are to be in charge of Scoutmaster Martin Peyer. The Ridge-dale troop was organized last week.

Between 100 and 200 boys are now enlisted in Boy Scout work, and the activities that are being planned will include two hikes each month.
